Participate in a study on the organization and communication between different areas of the brain through a video game!

This study is divided in two parts: an online training session and an in-person main experiment session which involves behavioural, physiological and brain activation measures (fMRI).

ELIGIBILITY:
- 18-40 years old
- no history of neurological/psychiatric disorder
- proficient in English or French
- right handed

COMPENSATION: 60 CHF
DURATION: 1 hr 30 mins (training session) + 2 hrs (main experiment)
LANGUAGE: English / French
LOCATION: Remotely + Brain Behaviour Laboratory, Rue Michel-Servet 1, 1206 Geneva

For more information, please contact mixue.tan@unige.ch

All data will be treated confidentially. Participation in the study provides no medical benefit. The study was authorized by the cantonal ethics committee (#BASEC: 2018-02006).

Principal Investigators: Patrik Vuilleumier (UNIGE), Ronan Boulic (EPFL), Dimitri Van De Ville (UNIGE & EPFL)